Castlebridge has always been a 'connected work' hybrid business. The move to fully remote working in 2020 caused us to look for a suitable vendor and we found IP Telecom.

The onboarding was efficient, support has been responsive, and we now have integrated DDI calling, an effective IVR, and direct integration into our back-office systems all via the Microsoft Teams interface. And the total cost, for an all-round better service, is still less than we were paying our previous provider
